Emerging Artists Showcase & Exhibit
Project ART: Emerging Artist Showcase, A Mosaic of Talent

DALLAS, TEXAS -- Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. - The North Dallas Suburban Alumnae Chapter is issuing a call for artists to participate in their Emerging Artists Showcase and Exhibit. This exhibit will provide an outlet for local, upcoming talent to showcase their works to members of the community, provide exposure and assist artists in continuing their artistic growth.

In addition to networking with arts patrons, artists will have an opportunity to market their works. For participating in the Showcase, artists will be entered into a drawing and have an opportunity to win one of three stipends in the amounts of $150, $100, and $50 that may be used towards the purchase of supplies, materials, or education costs.

Artists, authors, painters, singers, dancers, or sculptors, ages 16 and older are eligible to apply. Applicants must submit an application and samples of the work to be showcased to:

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

All entries must be postmarked by April 15, 2012.

About Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. is a public service organization founded in 1913 on the campus of Howard University to promote academic excellence; to provide scholarships, to provide support to the underserved; to educate and stimulate participation in the establishment of positive public policy; and to highlight issues and provide solutions for problems in their communities. Today, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority has over 250,000 member and more than 1000 chapters worldwide. The North Dallas Suburban Alumnae Chapter, chartered in 1996, continues the sorority's tradition of sisterhood and service by implementing programs in response to identified local community concerns.
